

The Life of a Young Deacon

Volume 1, Issue 5

December 2009

Deacon's Corner

In the coming few issues we will summarise the different tunes used in the liturgical hymns to indicate the various seasons and occasions of the Church calendar:

- ✠ The Joyful tune is used during the following periods:
 - Tute 1-16 for the Coptic New Year
 - Kiahk 29 (Feast of Nativity) to Tubah 6 (Feast of Circumcision)
 - Tubah 7 (Feast of Epiphany) to Tubah 13 (Wedding of Cana in Galilee)
 - 50 days from Resurrection to Pentecost inclusive
 - All of the remaining Lordly Feasts except for Covenant Thursday (falls during Passion Week) and the Feast of the Annunciation if it falls during Passion Week
 - 29th of each Coptic month (commemorating the Feasts of the Annunciation, Nativity and Resurrection) except Amshir & Tubah

The Month of Kiahk

Then Mary said, "Behold the maidservant of the Lord! Let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her. Luke 1:38

The Month of Kiahk is known as the Marian Month as in it the Church honours the Mother of God (Theotokos) Saint Mary.

The month is filled with praises and vigils as the Church congregation prepares to receive the Newborn Saviour into their lives. Just as the Wise Men saw the Star shining in the East and presented their gifts, we too eagerly prepare our hearts and lives to receive the newborn Messiah on Christmas day.

During the four Sundays of Kiahk the Church reads the whole first chapter of Saint Luke's gospel, talking about the annunciation of the birth of Saint John the Baptist and our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, then the visit of Saint Mary to her cousin Saint Elizabeth followed by the birth of Saint John the Baptist. Then on the 29th of Kiahk (January 7th) the whole Church rejoices at the beginning of Salvation with the birth of Emmanuel in the manger.

May the month of Kiahk be a source of prayer and praise in our lives as we too submit our lives in the hands of our Lord and say with Saint Mary, "Let it be to me according to your word."
